TOGAF – Enterprise Architecture Foundation

Description

Discover our Training TOGAF – Enterprise Architecture Foundation course, designed to guide you through the foundations and key concepts of the latest version of TOGAF. Whether you are new to enterprise architecture or looking to refine your skills, this course is the perfect stepping stone to prepare for and pass The Open Group's official exam.

With Training TOGAF – Enterprise Architecture Foundation, you will cover essential themes such as the Architecture Development Method (ADM), ADM application techniques, as well as governance and enterprise architecture capability. Although the course covers all the necessary learning outcomes, additional study is recommended for in-depth mastery. Don't miss the opportunity to become a certified professional in enterprise architecture with our specialized training.

Course Content

- Module 1: Introduction
- Module 2: Basic Concepts
- Module 3: Core Concepts
- Module 4: General Definitions
- Module 5: Introduction to ADM
- Module 6: Enterprise Continuum and Tools
- Module 7: ADM Phases Level 1
- Module 8: ADM Guidelines and Techniques
- Module 9: Architecture Governance
- Module 10: Views, Viewpoints, and Stakeholders
- Module 11: Building Blocks
- Module 12: ADM Deliverables
- Module 13: TOGAF Level 1 Reference Models
- Module 14: Summary

Documentation

- Digital courseware included

Exam

© Copyright ITTA – All contents are protected by copyright.

- Preparation for the Part 1 exam of TOGAF enterprise architecture.
- 60-minute exam, closed book format with 40 multiple-choice questions.
- Passing score required: 60% (24 correct answers out of 40).
- Exam voucher included; booking required by the participant at a time and place of their choice.

Participant profiles

- Individuals wishing to gain a basic understanding of TOGAF enterprise architecture
- Professionals who have held roles related to an architectural project as well as those responsible for its planning, execution, development, and operation
- Individuals working for an organization that applies the TOGAF standard or joining such an organization
- Architects wanting to adopt TOGAF enterprise architecture
- Architects aiming for later certification as a TOGAF Practitioner (Level 2)
- Anyone interested in enterprise architecture and TOGAF
- Enterprise architect
- Solutions architect
- ERP/SAP architect
- Data architect
- Technical architect
- Security architect
- Consultant in governance and enterprise architecture
- Business analyst

Prerequisites

- Basic experience in planning and developing IT systems

Objectives

- Master the concepts and terminology of Enterprise Architecture and the TOGAF.
- Apply the Architecture Development Method (ADM) cycle and understand the objectives of each phase.
- Adapt and target the ADM for its specific use.
- Effectively use supporting techniques for applying the ADM.
- Implement the ADM in a digital enterprise context, with iteration and partitioning.
- Contribute to the development of the architecture through effective governance.
- Prepare for the Level 1 (Foundation) certification exam.

Description
Training TOGAF - Enterprise Architecture Foundation
Niveau
Fondamental
Classroom Registration Price (CHF)
2500
Virtual Classroom Registration Price (CHF)
2350
Duration (in Days)
3
Reference
TOG-01

© Copyright ITTA – All contents are protected by copyright.