Computer Security Awareness

Description

This half-day training will allow participants to acquire essential concepts while being aware of IT security management.

Course Content
Module 1: Importance of IT security awareness: key figures and risks for companies Module 2: Who are the criminals targeting and why? Module 3: Techniques Used By Cybercriminals Module 4: Simple rules to follow

- Apply operating procedures
- Imperatively comply with the rules for the use of IT means set out in the IT Charter
- Handle documents and emails containing confidential information in accordance with their sensitivity classification levels
- Apply good IT security practices
- Protect your identity
- Protect your data
- Secure your emails
- Access the Internet securely
- How to work outside?
- Rules to apply to the use of Removable Media (CDs, DVDs, USB devices, ...)
- IT law and security
- Manage Security Incidents

Documentation

- Digital courseware included

Participant profiles

- Users of their company's information system

Prerequisites

- No prerequisites

Objectives

- Create an IT Security culture within the company
- Publicize IT security risks and understand the main solutions implemented in the company
- Understand Information Security needs for the whole company

Niveau
Fondamental
Classroom Registration Price (CHF)
600
Virtual Classroom Registration Price (CHF)
575
Duration (in Days)

0.5
Reference
SUSI