

Tableau Desktop – Fundamentals

Description

Tableau Desktop Training: Master the Data Visualization Tool

Discover how Tableau Desktop can transform your data into powerful and interactive visual insights. This Tableau training guides you step-by-step in mastering the interface and essential features to create impactful dashboards. Whether you work with single or multiple data sources, you will learn to leverage calculation functions, create dynamic parameters, and use geographic data. Give meaning to your data and become an expert in using this essential business intelligence tool.

Course Content

- Module 1: Explore the Tableau Desktop interface
- Module 2: Work with single data sources
- Module 3: Combine multiple data sources
- Module 4: Create and use calculated fields
- Module 5: Master table calculations
- Module 6: Design and apply parameters
- Module 7: Define custom subsets
- Module 8: Work with geographic areas in Tableau Desktop
- Module 9: Effectively share your insights
- Module 10: Analyze and visualize time-based data
- Module 11: Use and optimize your Dashboards

Documentation

- Digital courseware included

Participant profiles

- Anyone who is responsible for analyzing data and presenting it in a visual form

Prerequisites

- Basic knowledge of Business Intelligence concepts is useful, but not necessary

Objectives

- Easily navigate the Tableau Desktop interface
- Working with one or more data sources
- Set up calculated fields
- Add a table calculation and define parameters
- Defining subsets of your data
- Working with different geographical reports and time data
- Share and communicate information
- Effectively use different types of "Dashboard"

Description

Tableau Desktop Training

Niveau

Fondamental

Classroom Registration Price (CHF)

900

Virtual Classroom Registration Price (CHF)

850

Duration (in Days)

1

Reference

TABLEAU